

I want to comment on the NAB's attempt to stop satilite radio from broadcasting traffic conditions in various locations. As I travel quite a bit I use this to a great extent. It is very handy to just dial a location rather than spend much time looking for a station in a market which has these reports. Please do not change a thing.